Test Cases	Pre Conditions	Expected Result	Actual Result	Post Condition	Pass/Fail	Test Owner
Test Case: Verify Login and Authorization.
Test Case: Verify Content Management.
Test Case: Verify Media Handling and Display.
Test Case: Verify User Management and Role Creation.
Test Case: Verify SEO Management.
Test Case: Verify Form Management.
Check that the user can search and filter content within the CMS.
Test the ability to track and view the revision history of pages and content.
Check that the CMS can handle different types of page templates and layouts.
Check that the CMS can handle different types of plugins and extensions.
Verify that the login functionality works as expected
Verify that the content search functionality works as expected
Verify that the content organization and categorization functionality works as expected
Verify that the user management functionality works as expected
Verify that the plugin and extension management functionality works as expected
Verify that the backup and restore functionality works as expected
Test that the CMS can be accessed and logged in using valid credentials.
Test that the CMS can be accessed and logged in using invalid credentials.
Test that users can upload and insert images and other media into pages within the CMS.
Test that users can create, edit, and delete different types of content
Test that the CMS generates proper URLs for pages and content.
Verify that the CMS login page loads correctly.
Verify that users with different roles
Verify that all elements of the CMS's user interface
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different formats of postcode.
Test the ability to create and manage different types of pages and templates:
Verify that the CMS can handle different types of data
Verify that the user can login to the CMS with a valid username and password
Test the ability to add and manage different types of content
Verify that the CMS can handle multiple languages
Test the ability to create and manage different types of pages and templates:
Verify that the CMS can handle different types of data
Security
Verify that the user can login to the CMS with a valid username and password
Verify that the user can backup and restore the entire CMS or specific pages and content
Test the ability to add and manage different types of users, roles and permissions
Verify that the user can customize the front-end of the website using the provided templates
Verify that the content creation and editing functionality works as expected
Verify that the content publishing and scheduling functionality works as expected

Test Cases	Pre Conditions	Expected Result	Actual Result	Post Condition	Pass/Fail	Test Owner
Verify that the template and theme management functionality works as expected
Test that the CMS can handle a large number of simultaneous users
Test that the CMS has proper security measures in place
Test that the CMS can be integrated with other systems
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different languages and character sets
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different time zones
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different formats of currency
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different formats of email
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different formats of phone numbers
Verify that the CMS can handle and properly display different formats of URLs
Check that the CMS can be easily automated
Evaluate the accessibility of the CMS for people with disabilities
Verify that changes made to the CMS do not break existing functionality
Verify that the user is able to view analytics and statistics for the website						