

Test Cases	Pre Conditions	Expected Result	Actual Result	Post Condition	Pass/Fail	Test Owner
Verify that the website builder interface is user-friendly and easy to navigate
Verify that all website elements are displayed correctly
Verify that all links on the website are working and redirecting to the correct pages
Verify that all buttons, such as submit and call-to-action, work correctly
Verify that the website can be easily shared on social media platforms
Verify that the website is compatible with various web technologies
Verify that the website includes a contact page and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes an FAQ page and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes a help center and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes a support center and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes a feedback form and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes a returns and refunds policy and works correctly
Verify that the website includes a payment and shipping policy and is working correctly
Verify that the website includes a resources section and is working correctly
Verify that the website is compatible with different browsers
Verify that the website is compatible with different operating systems
Verify that the website is compatible with different screen sizes and resolutions
Verify that the website is compatible with different devices
Verify that the website is compatible with different web standards
Verify that the website is compatible with different accessibility technologies
Verify that the website is compatible with different multimedia formats
Verify that the website is compatible with different plugins and extensions
Verify the website is compatible with different payment gateways
Verify that the website is compatible with different email services
Verify that the website is compatible with different social media platforms
Verify that the website is compatible with different security technologies
Check all buttons, links, and images are clickable on different devices
Validate that all elements of the website are properly aligned on different devices
Check that all images and videos scale correctly on different devices
Verify that the website loads quickly on different devices
Check that all hover effects work as expected on different devices
Check that all animations work as expected on different devices
Verify that the website's background image and color display correctly on different devices
Check that the website's icons and graphics display correctly on different devices
Verify that the website loads quickly on all devices and web browsers
Verify that the website's cache management is optimized for fast loading
Check that the website's server response time is optimized for fast loading
Check that the website's server is configured for optimal performance
Validate that the website's server can handle high traffic volumes
Test that the website's server can scale dynamically as needed
Verify that the website's third-party plugins are up-to-date
Check that the website's third-party plugins are compatible with its platform

Verify that the website's third-party plugins are not affecting performance
Test that the website's third-party plugins do not cause errors or bugs
Verify that the website's third-party plugins are compatible with mobile devices
Check that the website's third-party plugins are compatible with different web browsers
Validate that the website's third-party plugins can handle high traffic volumes
Verify if the website builder correctly displays error messages for incorrect form input data
Check if the website builder has proper error handling mechanisms for server errors, such as 404 errors
Test if the website builder gracefully handles broken links and missing images
Verify if the website builder displays error messages when mandatory fields are left blank in forms
Test if the website builder has proper error handling mechanisms
Verify if the website builder displays error messages when the storage limit is exceeded
Verify if the website is accessible with a screen reader
Validate if the website has appropriate color contrast
Test if the website has keyboard accessibility
Test if the website is accessible on different devices
Test if the website has a proper semantic HTML structure
Test if the website has proper semantic headings
Verify if the website has proper HTML5 validation
Verify if the website has proper SSL encryption
Test if the website has secure login functionality
Verify if the website has proper error handling for security issues
Test if the website has proper data encryption measures
Validate if the website has proper secure cookie handling
Test if the website has proper threat detection measures
Test if the website has a proper security policy and guidelines
Test if the website has regular security audits and risk assessments
Verify if the website has proper meta tags and descriptions
Test if the website has keyword-rich content
Validate if the website has proper header tags
Test if the website has a proper robots.txt file
Validate if the website has proper internal linking
Test if the website has proper social media integration
Verify if the website has proper schema markup
Test if the website has proper Google Analytics tracking
Validate if the website has proper Google Search Console integration
Verify if the website has proper bounce rate and exit rate analysis						